

INTERNATIONAL PASSIVE HOUSE SUMMER SCHOOL FOR STUDENTS

14. 7. – 26. 7. 2008

Carinthia University of Applied Sciences

Spittal a.d. Drau Austria

Workshop for design competence, technical and calculation knowledge with practical exercises
and excursion

Contents: (Draft), Design and planning (criteria), construction, detailed solutions, knowledge of materials, calculation, installations, quality assurance, and user satisfaction, construction site visits and a 3-day excursion to buildings demonstrating innovative technology and high architectural quality

Target group: Upper semester students at European universities in the fields of architecture and building construction

Objectives: Design competence, technical and calculation knowledge, practical exercises, international networking

Location: Carinthia University of Applied Sciences, Villacher Str. 1, 9800 Spittal / Drau, Austria

Organizer: Carinthia University of Applied Sciences, (Fachhochschule Kärnten), DI. Ernst Heiduk

Workshop language: English

ECTS: 2 points

Teaching: The teaching experts consist of university lecturers and researchers in the field of passive house standard and experts of the network IG Passive House working in innovative building practice.

Costs: Summer School / Workshop (incl. software PHPP, handouts and excursion): € 500, -

Food / Accommodation: Meals and some rooms close by are available

Grants: Some grants sponsored by firms are available.

The number of participants is restricted. Registrations are processed on a first come, first served basis. If a visa is necessary the participant will be sent the required invitation.

Information and registration:

Email: e.heiduk@cuas.at

Phone: +43 4762 90500 1138

Web: www.cuas.at/phss