

CCS in Industry – Results from IEAGHG Workshop

28th April 2014 / 11:30-16:00h

Hotel De France, "Salon Franz-Joseph"
Schottenring 3 – 1010 Vienna, Austria

Monday, 28th April 2014
11:30 – 12:30	Registration and lunch "Atrium"
12:30 – 12:45	Opening welcome and setting the scene (Theodor Zillner, Austrian Federal Ministry for Transport, Innovation and Technology)
12:45 – 13:05	IEA CCS Industry Road Map (Simon Bennett, IEA)
13:05 – 13:25	Overview of IEAGHG activities on CCS and industry developments globally (John Gale, IEAGHG)
13:25 – 13:50	IEAGHG steel industry study (Stanley Santos, IEAGHG)
13:50 – 14:10	Coffee / Tea break - "Atrium / Foyer"
14:10 – 14:30	CCS in the cement industry (John Davison, IEAGHG)
14:30 – 14:50	CCS in the oil refining sector (Stanley Santos, IEAGHG)
14:50 – 15:50	Statements and Panel Discussion with representatives of Austrian Industry (Moderator Gerald Vones, Austrian Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy)
15:50 – 16:00	Wrap up of Day – Austrian Federal Ministry for Transport, Innovation and Technology

The workshop will be hosted by the Austrian Federal Ministry for Transport, Innovation and Technology and is organized by the Austrian Energy Agency. The IEA Greenhouse Gas R&D Programme (IEAGHG) is an international collaborative research programme established in 1991 as an Implementing Agreement under the International Energy Agency (IEA) and thankfully supporting this workshop. The Republic of Austria is a Member of IEAGHG. Places are limited to 50, participation by invitation only.

Please contact carmen.marksteiner@energyagency.at